

Look at the beautiful kebayas on display on Level 3!

Bibik Neo is definitely going to be well-dressed for the wedding ceremony.

Let's take a peek into her wardrobe!

7. How many pairs of Spanish flamenco dancers are beautifully embroidered on this kebaya?
()

Do you smell the burning of incense?

Could Bibik Neo be making offerings to the ancestors on this special occasion?

8. What is the flower at the wash basin?
(This flower is a type of water lily.)

L _ T _ _ _

I hear noises coming from the dining hall. Could she be setting the table for the grand tok panjang?

9. How many people are invited for dinner?
()

Hmm, where is the wonderful aroma coming from? The kitchen! Could Bibik Neo be there?

Yes, there she is! She is standing by the window in the kitchen.

She has been busy making delicious Ang Ku Kueh for the festivities.

10. Touch and feel the mould. Can you identify the animal carving that stands for long life?

Congratulations!
You have found Bibik Neo and have discovered so much about the Peranakan culture!

Now, let's get her ready for the wedding ceremony!

Colour Me!

The wedding ceremony is about to start but...

Bibik Neo,
the mother of the groom
is missing!

*Where can she be?
Can you help us look for her?*

Is Bibik Neo clearing up family photos?

1. Look at the many portraits at the Origins Gallery (Level 1).

Who said, "Being Peranakan means '... learning to eat sambal belachan.'?"

Name) _____

He is a C _____ Melaka Peranakan and

C _____ Peranakan.

Or is she busy preparing the lavish wedding gifts on Level 2?

2. Which of these are suitable gifts of exchange for the wedding?

Tick where appropriate.

- Toothbrush ()
- Longans ()
- A leg of pork ()
- Mirror ()
- Two bottles of syrup ()
- Candles ()
- Hairbrush ()
- Belt ()

The Lap Chai ('Exchange of Gifts') ceremony has ended.

Perhaps she is busy inspecting the wedding trousseau. Let's have a look!

3. The following object is part of a gilt teak furniture piece which you can find in the gallery.

Examine this beautiful gilt teak furniture. How many phoenixes do you spot on it? ()

Bibik Neo is still nowhere to be found! Could she be decorating the wedding bed?

4. How many different kinds of animals do you spot in and around the wedding chamber?

B ___
 ___ O ___ N ___ X
 ___ E E ___
 ___ R ___ G O ___
 B ___ T T ___ R ___ L ___

Do you hear the seronee? It is the music that ushers in the bride and bridegroom.

The wedding entourage is arriving!

5. Hurry! Join in the wedding procession and count the number of...

- people in the procession ()
- lanterns ()
- coin buttons with European insigno ()
- handkerchiefs ()
- pairs of shoes ()

"Ring ring...!"

Could Bibik Neo be on the telephone on Level 3?

6. Pick up the yellow telephone and find out what special food she is making for her friend, Daisy.

